Simple but Sure
Hyomei, the Great Catarrh Remedy. "Just Breathe It" and be Cured.

Do not try to cure catarrh, head colds or snuffles by taking drugs.
These common but dangerous ailments that often cause the loss of hearing cannot be cured that way.
The commonsense method is to breathe the Hyomei, which gets the infection right where it is needed to heal the raw and inflamed lining of the air passages.
Hyomei is a mixture of antiseptic oils—you breathe it—no bother; no disagreeable medicine; simply use the inhaler a few times daily and this healing medication will quickly soothe and heal the irritated tissues, stop distressing choking and unpleasant discharges—you breathe freely—dull headaches cease, and every catarrhal symptom soon vanishes.

There is nothing more simple and safe to use, or that gives such rapid and lasting benefit as Hyomei—and F.
D. Pierce sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan.

David L. Willey.

David L. Willey died at his home from cerebral hemorrhage early Wednesday morning after an illness of only about two days. Mr. Willey had apparently been in fairly good health and was stricken Sunday evening while attending to his usual work. He was unconscious when found by Mrs.
Willey and did not regain consciousness from then until the end. Mr. Willey was born in Shipton, Canada, on Nov.
1, 1852, his parents being Alexander and Dorcas Willey of that town. For many years Mr. Willey had lived in New Hampshire and Vermont. He married Ida P. Foote of Orford, on Oct. 19, 1877, who survives her husband. He is also survived by his son, Everett B. Willey of Manchester, N.
H., and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Fletcher of Pelham, N. H., and two sisters, Mrs. O. G. Page of Orleans and Mrs.
E. E. Nutting of Pelham, N. H. Mr.
Willey was a well known horseman of northern Vermont and had had charge of the horses on the fair grounds at Barton for several years.
His more recent occupation was janitor of the school buildings at Orleans, which position he held at the time of his death. The funeral services were at the home Saturday afternoon, the Rev. E. W. Eldridge officiating, and the interment was in the cemetery here.

A Card—We wish to thank all the neighbors and friends whose kind acts and words of sympathy have helped us to bear our sorrow and to thank those who contributed so many beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Ida P. Willey,
Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Willey,
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fletcher.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Prayer service tonight at 7.30 o'clock. Will you help to make this last service of the year a helpful one?

Sunday services. Sermons at 10.30 a. m. and 7.15 p. m. Holy communion will conclude the morning service.
Bible school follows. As this will be the beginning of new lessons with changed helps in some instances, it will be a favorable time to join the school. All who desire to make this their church home are most cordially invited to be present. Junior League at 3 o'clock.

A union service will be held at the usual hour for evening worship 7.15, with the Rev. E. W. Eldridge as the preacher. To this service everyone will be given a hearty welcome.

A meeting of the Sunday school board will be held Thursday at 7.30 p. m. As this is the annual business meeting for election of officers for the coming year it is desirable that every member be present.

The Christmas exercises were pleasantly rendered by members of the school, and much enjoyed by an audience filling the church. Every recitation was well given. Warwick Hunt and Roderick Dickens captured the audience. Solos were sung with fine effect by Teddy Greene, Doris Dickens, Myrtle Allen, and Edna Hartwell, and a duet by Evelyn and Esther Kinney.
A chorus choir of 16 young people sang several selections most acceptably.
The decorations were beautiful and appropriate. Three trees yielded a rich fruitage to the delight of the children. Those having the program and arrangements in charge are to be congratulated.

F. J. Kinney and Otis Smithers sang a duet at the service on Sunday morning. In the evening a male quartet, composed of Elbert Cole, Philip Furnas, Rudolph Kliner, and Otis Smithers sang, "Be Strong." It is expected that they will sing again next Sunday.

ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the shareholders of the Central Savings Bank and Trust Company will be held at their banking rooms in Orleans, Vt., Monday, January 12, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing Directors for the year ensuing and the transaction of any other legal business.

R. A. BEAN, Secretary.

Parker, Young Company's Latest Enter- prise.

The Lumberman's Review has a very interesting article in its December issue relative to the Indian Lake Lumber company. This company is in reality a branch of the Parker, Young company of Lisbon and Orleans.
This plant and the 22,000 odd acres of spruce timberland was purchased by the Parker, Young company on Oct. 1, and since that date the camps and mills have been thoroughly rebuilt and put into shape for the coming season.
New mill and wood crews have been gathered and set to work and the slogan of this new company is, "Dimension spruce the year round," and it is expected that the mill here will be able to produce dimension spruce throughout the winter when at times such timber is hard to procure at other mills. Geo. H. Greene is manager of the new Indian Lake company and Frank Harrington is the mill superintendent. These men filled similar positions at Woodstock with the Woodstock Lumber company another Parker, Young company. This tract of timber land in Maine is practically a virgin spruce forest, a railway runs from Brownville Junction, Canada, four miles to the mill of the Indian Lake company and several additional miles of logging road will be constructed next spring. The company has already commenced shipment, their first car going out on Nov. 21.
Martin A. Brown, treasurer of the Woodstock Lumber company has been made president of this new company and K. D. Scates will act as treasurer.
The general sales offices of the company will be in the Board of Trade buildings, Boston.

Congregational Church Notes

The midweek service will be held in the chapel tonight at 7.30. The subject to be considered is "New Year's Resolutions." This is certainly timely and we hope for a goodly number to consider it.

Morning worship Sunday at the usual hour. This will be the first Sunday in the New Year and the pastor's sermon will be along lines appropriate to that occasion. The choir will furnish good music. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will also be administered and a collection taken for the board of ministerial relief. All not worshiping elsewhere are cordially invited.

The Sunday school will meet at the close of morning worship. Why not join us in this work? The lessons for the year are just beginning. They will be interesting and helpful. Get your quarterly Sunday and come in with us.

The Junior Endeavor society will hold its meeting in the vestry Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Let all the members be present and start the new year right.

The evening church service will be the regular monthly union service.
It will be held in the Methodist church at the usual hour. Let all who can attend.

Auburn, Mass., are visiting at the home of Mr. Winslow's brother, A. O.
Austin, this week. Mr. Winslow will join his family the latter part of the week.

The box shop and sounding board mill started again Monday morning and the veneer mill will only be closed a few days longer for repairs, but it is not expected that the back factory will be started until about March 1.

The chemical engine here was taken to Irasburg to assist in putting out the fire in the Carpenter home last week. About twenty members of the fire company here also went and while the Irasburg men had succeeded in getting the fire under control, the Orleans men were able to be of quite a little assistance.

Checks Croup Instantly

You know croup is dangerous. And you should also know the sense of security that comes from always having Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. Take it for coughs, colds, tickling throat, hoarseness and for bronchitis and la grippe coughs.
Contains no opiates. Every user is a friend.

WINNING A DECORATION.

The Tradesman Got the Grand Cross and King Peter the Reward.

An excellent story is going the rounds about King Peter of Servia.

A French tradesman who had amassed a great fortune wanted very badly to get hold of some decoration to wear on his breast, and after some financial maneuvering he managed to secure a Servian cross of something or other.
He was immensely proud of this cross, and instead of having it set with the usual inferior quality of brilliants he had it set with diamonds of the first water.

Soon afterward he visited Servia, and, as in duty bound, he called on King Peter to thank him for the order.
He wore, of course, his magnificent cross, and King Peter, who knows something about jewels, immediately fixed his eyes on it. He himself was wearing the grand cross of the order set with rather poor brilliants, and the moment his visitor came within reach he exclaimed: "But what is this? I gave orders that you should have the grand cross. The cross alone is not worthy of you. Here, you shall wear mine."

Before the other could protest Peter had changed the cross for the grand cross, substituting the inferior jewels for the splendid diamonds on the breast of the other! As a matter of fact, of course, he had never heard of his visitor before, the decoration having been arranged by his ministers.—

ON HIS BLINDNESS.

When I consider how my light is spent Ere half my days in this dark world and wide,
And that one talent which is death to hide Lodged with me useless, though my soul more bent
To serve therewith my Maker, and present
My true account, lest he returning chide
"Doth God exact day labor, light denied?"
I fondly ask. But patience, to prevent That murmur, soon replies,
"God doth not need Either man's work or his own gifts. Who best Bear his mild yoke, they serve him best. His state Is kingly. Thousands at his bidding speed,
And post o'er land and ocean without rest:
They also serve who only stand and wait!"
—John Milton.
